"They tell me," General Reyes said at this dinner, that the United States has its share of nouveaux riches—of new-rich persons. This may be so, but I am sure that the new-rich are to be found everywhere. I like them. They make, though, strange mistakes.

Christopher Aadnesson died suddenly yesterday about noon at his home. 34 Washington avenue. Apoplexy is given as the cause. Mr. Aadnesson's health had been of the best, notwithstanding that he was in his 30th year. There was a party at his horre Wednesday night and he seemed to enjoy the festivities as thoroughly as any of those present. Yesterday morning he arose and dressed himself without assistance. He was seated quietly in his chair about noon when the end came suddenly without warning. Mr. Aadnesson was born in Norway in 1814 and came to Utah in 1899. He has lived in Ogden about a third of a century. He leaves four daughters and three sons. One of his daughters is Mrs. Albert Becker. Another is in California and the arrangements for the funeral have been deferred until she shall be heard from.
